our hotel

A city of ornate parks, a charming downtown and plenty of cultural activities, Elgin also boasts a proud history. In fact, you may wear part of that history on your wrist or in your vest pocket-the Elgin Watch Company was founded in 1864 and produced 60 million watches over the next 100 years. Today, not far from our Hampton Inn® hotel in Chicago/Elgin , you can listen to our symphony, play a round of golf, visit one of our riverboat casinos or take your family to our local zoo.

where to go and what to do

To truly get to know the area that surrounds our hotel in Elgin, first start at the Elgin Public Museum, located within the stunning 108-acre Lords Park. It's the perfect spot to bring your family in warm months; there are nature trails, a zoo, a playground and a petting farm. Another classic in town is The Milk Pail Restaurant, a tucked-away spot in the woods that has been a favorite since 1939. For a little livelier entertainment, go see one of Elgin's riverboat casinos or stop by The Centre, a public recreation facility with three pools, a gym, a rock-climbing wall and a 9,600-square-foot health center. You'll also find plenty of unique shops and restaurants in our downtown area.
